PLEASE READ AND ACKNOWLEDGE THE PATIENT PRIVACY NOTICE ON THE BACK

PATIENT PRIVACY NOTICE

This notice describes how your healthcare information obtained by Anaheim Hearing Center will be used for the purpose of diagnosing and treating hearing and balance disorders as required by the Privacy Regulations created as a result of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA). Please review it carefully.

- Your personal information will be disclosed only for the purpose of treatment, insurance billing and healthcare operations (such as ordering a hearing instrument). Disclosures of your personal health information for any use other than the above mentioned purposes will require your written authorization except as required by law (i.e. judicial proceedings, law enforcement, public health emergencies).
- Authorized disclosures by you of your healthcare information for uses other than payment, treatment, and healthcare operations will be maintained in your electronic chart. You may request to see a list of these disclosures.
- Our office routinely makes reminder telephone calls to confirm appointments. If we reach an answering machine or voicemail we will leave a message with our practice name and the time and date of your appointment. If you do NOT want us to leave you a message, please contact the front desk.
- Any information you send to us (pictures, stories, letters, biographies, thank-you notes, etc.) becomes the exclusive property of Anaheim Hearing Center. We reserve the right to use non-identifying information about our clients for fundraising and promotional purposes that are directly related to our mission. Clients will not be compensated for use of this information. As a valued client, you will be receiving offers from our office by email, mail, or phone regarding services that may personally benefit you. We may or may not receive financial compensation from third party sources for marketing purposes. Clients may specifically request, in writing, that no information be used for promotional purposes; however, we are not responsible for purchased mailing lists to random databases. We reserve the right to release information regarding your treatment to your physician and/or referring agency. We also retain the right to call you for your follow-up services.
- You have the right to restrict our use and disclosure of your personal information. You may request to make changes and amendments at any time.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding our privacy practices please contact us. The Privacy Officer, Julie Ball, can be reached at 200 N Harbor Blvd, #110, Anaheim, CA 92805 and/or 714-535-7508 and/or hearforlife@anaheimhearing.com.
